at every stage of their spiritual journey,
and we seek to create opportunities for faith in God
to be discovered, renewed and put into action.*

An "Instructed" Holy Eucharist

The Third Sunday of Easter, Year C

10:00am Service, Rite Two

May 5, 2019

Welcome! If you are worshipping with us for the first time today, we are honored by your presence.

If you would like to know more about St. James, or want us to know more about you, we invite you to sign the guest book just inside the church doors, and to fill out a pew card. You may drop the completed card into the alms basin, or hand it to an usher or member of the clergy.

We hope you sense God's presence as you worship with us today, and that we will have an opportunity to greet you following the liturgy.

If you are traveling, we wish you Godspeed as you continue on your way.

Hearing assistance devices are available from the ushers.

Nursery care for infants and young children is available upstairs.

A Reading from the Acts of the Apostles

Acts 9:1-6

Saul, still breathing threats and murder against the disciples of the Lord, went to the high priest and asked him for letters to the synagogues at Damascus, so that if he found any who belonged to the Way, men or women, he might bring them bound to Jerusalem. Now as he was going along and approaching Damascus, suddenly a light from heaven flashed around him. He fell to the ground and heard a voice saying to him, "Saul, Saul, why do you persecute me?" He asked, "Who are you, Lord?" The reply came, "I am Jesus, whom you are persecuting. But get up and enter the city, and you will be told what you are to do."

Psalm 30 Exaltabo te, Domine

Anglican Chant: J. Turle

- 1 WILL magnify thee, O LORD; for thou hast set me up, *
and not made my foes to triumph over me.
- 2 O LORD my God, I cried unto thee; *
and thou hast healed me.
- 3 Thou, LORD, hast brought my soul out of hell: *
thou hast kept my life, that I should not go down into the pit.
- 4 Sing praises unto the LORD, O ye saints of his; *
and give thanks unto him, for a remembrance of his holiness.
- 5 For his wrath endureth but the twinkling of an eye, and in his pleasure is life; *
heaviness may endure for a night, but joy cometh in the morning.
- 6 And in my prosperity I said, I shall never be removed: *
thou, LORD, of thy goodness, hast made my hill so strong.
- 7 Thou didst turn thy face from me, *
and I was troubled.
- 8 Then cried I unto thee, O LORD; *
and gat me to my LORD right humbly.
- 9 What profit is there in my blood, *
when I go down into the pit?
- 10 Shall the dust give thanks unto thee? *
or shall it declare thy truth?
- 11 Hear, O LORD, and have mercy upon me; *
LORD, be thou my helper.
- 12 Thou hast turned my heaviness into joy; *
thou hast put off my sackcloth, and girded me with gladness:
- 13 Therefore shall every good man sing of thy praise without ceasing. *
O my God, I will give thanks unto thee for ever.

A Reading from the Book of the Revelation to John

Revelation 5:11-14

I looked, and I heard the voice of many angels surrounding the throne and the living creatures and the elders; they numbered myriads of myriads and thousands of thousands, singing with full voice, "Worthy is the Lamb that was slaughtered to receive power and wealth and wisdom and might and honor and glory and blessing!"

Then I heard every creature in heaven and on earth and under the earth and in the sea, and all that is in them, singing, "To the one seated on the throne and to the Lamb be blessing and honor and glory and might forever and ever!" And the four living creatures said, "Amen!" And the elders fell down and worshiped.

The Holy Gospel

John 21:1-19

Gospeller The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to John.
People Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Jesus showed himself again to the disciples by the Sea of Tiberias; and he showed himself in this way. Gathered there together were Simon Peter, Thomas called the Twin, Nathanael of Cana in Galilee, the sons of Zebedee, and two others of his disciples. Simon Peter said to them, "I am going fishing." They said to him, "We will go with you." They went out and got into the boat, but that night they caught nothing.

Just after daybreak, Jesus stood on the beach; but the disciples did not know that it was Jesus. Jesus said to them, "Children, you have no fish, have you?" They answered him, "No." He said to them, "Cast the net to the right side of the boat, and you will find some." So they cast it, and now they were not able to haul it in because there were so many fish. That disciple whom Jesus loved said to Peter, "It is the Lord!" When Simon Peter heard that it was the Lord, he put on some clothes, for he was naked, and jumped into the sea. But the other disciples came in the boat, dragging the net full of fish, for they were not far from the land, only about a hundred yards off.

When they had gone ashore, they saw a charcoal fire there, with fish on it, and bread. Jesus said to them, "Bring some of the fish that you have just caught." So Simon Peter went aboard and hauled the net ashore, full of large fish, a hundred fifty-three of them; and though there were so many, the net was not torn. Jesus said to them, "Come and have breakfast." Now none of the disciples dared to ask him, "Who are you?" because they knew it was the Lord. Jesus came and took the bread and gave it to them, and did the same with the fish. This was now the third time that Jesus appeared to the disciples after he was raised from the dead.

When they had finished breakfast, Jesus said to Simon Peter, "Simon son of John, do you love me more than these?" He said to him, "Yes, Lord; you know that I love you." Jesus said to him, "Feed my lambs." A second time he said to him, "Simon son of John, do you love me?" He said to him, "Yes, Lord; you know that I love you." Jesus said to him, "Tend my sheep." He said to him the third time, "Simon son of John, do you love me?" Peter felt hurt because he said to him the third time, "Do you love me?" And he said to him, "Lord, you know everything; you know that I love you." Jesus said to him, "Feed my sheep. Very truly, I tell you, when you were younger, you used to fasten your own belt and to go wherever you wished. But when you grow old, you will stretch out your hands, and someone else will fasten a belt around you and take you where you do not wish to go." (He said this to indicate the kind of death by which he would glorify God.) After this he said to him, "Follow me."

The Nicene Creed (standing)

*We believe in one God,
the Father, the Almighty, maker of heaven and earth
of all that is, seen and unseen.*

*We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ,
the only Son of God,
eternally begotten of the Father,
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God,
begotten, not made,
of one Being with the Father.
Through him all things were made.*

*For us and for our salvation
he came down from heaven:
by the power of the Holy Spirit
he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary,
and was made man.
For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate;
he suffered death and was buried.
On the third day he rose again
in accordance with the Scriptures;
he ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead,
and his kingdom will have no end.*

*We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son.
With the Father and the Son he is worshiped and glorified.
He has spoken through the Prophets.
We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church.
We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins.
We look for the resurrection of the dead,
and the life of the world to come. Amen.*

Prayers of the People

from Intercessions for the Christian People

Intercessor In this Eastertide the hosts of heaven proclaim, "Worthy is the Lamb who was slain, to receive power and wealth and wisdom and might and honor and glory and blessing." Therefore I invite you, who join the worship of the Lamb with the angels and archangels and all the company of heaven, to pray for all for whom he died, saying: Lord, in your mercy, hear our prayer.

Almighty and merciful God, you exalted your Son as Leader and Savior, and raised him above all rule and authority. Give your faithful people courage to follow him in obedience to you wherever we are called to witness. Lord, in your mercy,

People Hear our prayer.

Intercessor As the disciples of Jesus ventured out at his word, so give us the faith to trust and obey his word in our lives as we pursue together the mission of the church. Lord, in your mercy,

People Hear our prayer.

Intercessor As the disciples of Jesus shared food with their Master, so give us the generosity to share what we have with those in need. Lord, in your mercy,

People Hear our prayer.

Intercessor As Jesus commanded Peter to feed his sheep, so strengthen all the clergy to preach the gospel and administer the sacraments with faithfulness and conviction. Lord, in your mercy,

People Hear our prayer.

Intercessor As the disciples shared a meal with the risen Lord, so by your Holy Spirit bring us in faith to the table of the Lord where we may feast on him who is our priest and victim. Lord, in your mercy,

People Hear our prayer.

Intercessor Bring us at last with all the saints to the adoration of the Lamb who was slain. Lord, in your mercy,

People Hear our prayer.

Celebrant To the one who sits upon the throne and to the Lamb be blessing and honor and glory and might forever and ever. Amen.

The Peace

Celebrant The Peace of the Lord be always with you.
People And also with you.

The clergy and people greet one another in the name of Christ.

Birthday Prayer

*Watch over thy children O Lord, as their days increase; Bless and guide them wherever they may be.
Strengthen them when they stand;
Comfort them when discouraged or sorrowful;
Raise them up if they fall;
And in their hearts may thy peace which passeth understanding abide all the days of their lives;
Through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.*

*Our Father, who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy Name,
thy kingdom come,
thy will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom,
and the power, and the glory,
for ever and ever. Amen.*

Healing & Pastoral Prayers Offered

Each Sunday healing prayers will be offered in the chapel by one of our priests during Communion at both the 7:30 & 10am services. All are welcome to come with their prayer requests.

Children's Ministries Education Programs:

Children ages 3 up to 5th grade are invited to join us for Sunday School as early as 9:30am, in the children's Chapel above the Parish Hall.

The nursery will be available from 8:45am to 11:45am as well.

Youth Ministry: IGNITE a passion for Christ

Our Youth Ministry, or IGNITE, gathers every Sunday, currently meetings upstairs in the Youth Room. Starting time is at 9 am the 1st, 3rd, and 5th Sundays of the month and 10 am the 2nd and 4th Sundays of the month. Contact Katelyn for more details (katelyn@sjbts.org)

Instructed Eucharist—Sunday, May 5, both 7:30 am and 10:00 am Services

This will be a great Sunday to get more familiar with the Episcopal church. It will be our second "Instructed Eucharist" which is simply an educational opportunity done in the context of worship during a service of Holy Eucharist. Teaching and commentary are offered throughout the service in real-time. The way it works is that the service is marked by several pauses in the liturgical action to explain the various parts of our rich and ancient liturgy and sacramental worship. These pauses take the place of a traditional sermon and so the service itself is of similar length as a typical worship service.

Sunday Forum TODAY: “Adverse Childhood Experiences, Recovery, and ECS”, 8:45am in the Parish Hall

TODAY, Sunday, May 5th we welcome Deann Rios to Adult Forum to discuss “Adverse Childhood Experiences, Recovery, and ECS.”

Deann will share about the importance and effects of Adverse Childhood Experiences, or ACEs, including an overview of how ACEs affect all of us and how it would benefit us to learn about them and will discuss how this overlaps with the work of ECS (Episcopal Community Services) and their recovery programs, specifically their newest program, Central East Regional Recovery Center (CERRC).

Deann Rios is a native San Diegan. She has worked in education, non-profits, and a variety of ministry settings. After college she earned a teaching credential and a Masters in Christian Education. Deann is passionate about learning, travel and cross cultural experiences, people, and social justice. She loves supporting others toward growth and discovering their value, gifts, and passions. She has worked for Episcopal Community Services for over six years and currently serves as their Community Engagement Coordinator.

On Sunday, May 12th, on her last visit to St. James, Bishop Katharine will guide our Sunday Forum, from her own experiences on the subject of engaging ecumenical and interfaith dialogue leading to cooperative ministry. You won't want to miss this last and very special opportunity with Bishop Katharine!

And on May 19th, we welcome Phyllis Olins to discuss her upcoming book, “The Conflict Crunch”. She has over 30 years of experience in applying conflict-mediation strategies to dilemmas in all walks of life.

A Bake Sale in support of Andrew Holden’s Return to SUMMA

On Sunday, May 5th after the 10am service, parishioner Andrew Holden will be selling some delectable baked goods in an effort to raise funds for his return this summer to Sewanee’s Theological Debate Camp. Thanks for your support.

Touch the hearts of ALL the special women in your life by honoring them with a donation in their name to Vida Joven.

On Sunday April 28 and May 5 members of the Outreach Committee will be selling Mother's Day cards for $5.00 featuring the artwork by the Vida Joven children. You will also have an opportunity to sign up for our next visit to the orphanage on Saturday May 18. Thank you for supporting these very special children.

Make A Lunch Bag for the Homeless

Please take a moment to make a lunch or two for those you may pass along your way. This important ministry needs not only your participation, but also your support. Please consider making a monetary donation, in order to allow St. James to continue this important work, serving our brothers and sisters in need.

Choral Evensong TODAY May 5th at 5pm at The Bishop’s School in St. Mary’s Chapel

Sung by the 12-voice Schola Cantorum of St. James by-the-Sea and members of the Choir of All Souls', Point Loma, Choral Evensong in an Anglican tradition is a magnificent act of choral worship. Drawn almost entirely from the Bible, its purpose is to proclaim the wonderful works of God and evoke from the worshiper a response of praise, penitence, and prayer.

In the beautiful setting of St. Mary's Chapel at The Bishop's School, there is no better place to spend 40 minutes of your afternoon surrounded by God's presence in the beauty of sacred music. Fr. Mark Hargreaves will be officiating at this service. All are welcome.

Pardon the Noise...

The sound of rushing wind coming from the organ is part of a pervasive problem that we have known about for some time. It means that the organ is reaching the end of its usable life, and there is no easy fix. I have been working with the Vestry, the Organ Committee, and Alex Benestelli over the past year to develop a comprehensive plan to address the organ. I am pleased to say that the Vestry has endorsed a plan and set a bold vision for our future. I will be sharing more exciting news in the months ahead, but in the meantime, please know that we are aware of the problem, we apologize for the disruption in worship, and we plan to address it in a meaningful way soon. -Fr. Mark

“A Dip in the Sea” - A Fundraiser to Support the Youth Mission Trip. May 11th, 5-8pm

You're invited to the beautiful coastal campus of St. James by-the-Sea for a breezy fundraiser that will help support the youth of our dioceses as they embark on a week-long mission trip this summer with a focus on poverty, immigration, and the environment. The evening's activities include a cocktail sunset hour, Baja coastal food selections, a photo booth, and a fiery homemade dip competition (chips provided!). Delicious food, beautiful scenery, and a wonderful cause make this event the perfect way to celebrate the special woman in your life this Mother's Day weekend.

Break out your favorite Island wear (flip flops optional) and join the fun. Tickets can be purchased after church on May 5th on our website. For more information contact Katelyn at Katelyn@sjbts.org!

WONDERS NEVER CEASE--Exhibition of work by artist Lenore Tolegian Hughes: Apr 13—May 19

St. James GALLERY by-the-Sea presents Wonders Never Cease, an exhibition of paper-weaving collages and floral watercolor/collages by Lenore Tolegian Hughes. The exhibition is open 11 am to 2 pm Wednesdays, Saturdays and Sundays, before and after church services, and by appointment. Hughes works in a wide spectrum of media, including watercolor collages, assemblages, installations and paper weavings.

On Saturday, May 11th at 11am in the GALLERY, Lenore Hughes and Fr. Mark Hargreaves will have a lively discussion exploring the artist's work and insights into her artistic process. Lenore will be treating us to her Armenian Paklava for refreshments. “What makes it Armenian is the use of golden, made to ancient specifications, clarified butter, ground walnuts harvested from walnut trees 50 years old from Fresno, and a delicate sprinkling of Meyer lemon infused simple syrup. Delicious!"

All are welcome!

Hughes will donate a percentage of art sales to St. James by-the-Sea and to The Village Garden Club of La Jolla. To make an appointment for individual and group visits to the gallery, phone 858.459.3421 or visit www.sjbts.org. For more information about Hughes and her art, visit her website: lenorehughes.com

What's this Family Camp I keep hearing about?

Family Camp is a tradition at St. James. It is a time for families to get away and pray and play together. It is a time of reflection, good food and a kinship with the beautiful outdoors our Creator provides us with. Everyone is invited to join the families of St. James at Camp Stevens May 31st -June 2nd. Reserve your space today and find out more by contacting Gabby at gabrielle@sjbts.org.

The Health Ministries Outreach Committee has two openings...

The HMOC was established at St James by-the-Sea in 2007 after the dissolution of the St James Memorial Fund. It's purpose was and is to assist community members in need of medical, dental, vision or equipment needs who do not have insurance or can not afford to pay their co-pay. The committee meets on the 2nd Wednesday of every month to review new and existing applications for funds. The committee is comprised of a Chairperson, Secretary, Treasurer, Case Managers, committee members without additional obligations and a dental consultant. The clients names are kept confidential in meeting minutes and meeting discussions. HMOC assisted about 50 clients during 2018. The committee currently has 2 open seats, 1 being Treasurer. If interested or for more information, contact Lorraine Benton at lorraine17@sbcglobal.net.

Prayers for the World

For Christian martyrs and for all who are persecuted for their faith. For refugees and all those who suffer from the degradations of war and violence.

Prayers for Our Diocese in a Time of Transition

O God, we thank you for the Episcopal Diocese of San Diego, and for the Church's ministry of reconciliation that has marked our common life for over four decades. In this time of transition, help us to welcome change as an opportunity to grow. Shower upon each member your Holy Spirit, that we will be strengthened for local ministry and love more deeply the one body to which you have called us. Bless those who search for our fifth diocesan bishop, that they may without fear discern your will for the future of our diocese. In all things, grant us your wisdom and grace, that the bishop whom we elect to lead us will be the one whom you have called. This we pray in the name of Jesus Christ, to whom, with you and the Holy Spirit, be all honor and glory, now and for ever.

At St. James by-the-Sea we welcome and care for all people at every stage of their spiritual journey, and we seek to create opportunities for faith in God to be discovered, renewed and put into action.
